From the Louisville Journal. LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM.

BY S. C. M.

I saw her in life's May-morn, My heart's first love, Jenetic, When the rose-bloom of her soul With the dew of youth was wet; Full five, five mches high. Lithe plane, and sweet sixteen: Oh! she was very lovely. And I was - very green

The jetty locks that rested Upon her brow of snow Went rippling like the waves Of a winter river's flow. Her eye was like the dew-drop, That gems the violet's cup, And when she smiled-ah me! she Completely used me up.

I saw her shortly after Before the altar sland. When she gave a wealthy booby Her white lily haml. "And writ thor, 'eve, they han!" S e sweetly murmured, "yes:" But she mly vowed "she would'n!.'-"No siree, Bul!" I guess.

Jenutte, Oh. dear Jenutte! My heart, it sank within, And drops wrung out by agony, Were beaded on my skin. Serychaine-a knith-a ripe Twisted around my throstle, Or tive and drown a word of reces Deep in the brandy bottle

Time fled -- again I saw her. With a baby on her laji. And she timed 'he rascal's music With an of't repeated stap; Her trembling lord and master Looked on in agony. Far the broom was in her hand And the devil in her eye

Notwithstanding the heat of the day and the fact that many of the farmers were busily engaged in their wheat harvest, at an early hour, noultitudes of the patriotic yeomanry of the county, and poured into the town. The firing of eannan broke the merning stillness, and peals of music from Menter's inimitable turn thanks to Capt. C. S. Grant, and silver band, filled the air with sublime the efficient squad of gentlemen from harmonies. The spirit of Americanism pervaded the very atmosphere, beamed in the countenances, and fired the breasts of the vast and excited throng.

When the doors of the Court Itouse were thrown open, the multitude ponred Grand Vocal and Instrumental Concert in, and occupied every foot of space in Senor Pagnoncelli ,the celebrated Bas- the capacious Circuit Court room. Many of my brends have realized marked to other from them, and coincide with me in believing that they passess extered in any virtues for driving out diseases and curing the sick. They are not only effectual, but safe and pleasant to be taken—qualities which must make them valued by the public when they are known. The venerable Chancel, r WARDIAW, writes from Baltimore, Lath April, 1804, -

JOHN F. BEATTY Esq., Sec. I the Penn. Ruitroad Co., says.—
P.L. R. K. Oshee, I'd delphut, Dec. 13, 1853.

"Sir: I take pleasure in alling my testimony to the efficacy of your medicines, having derived very material tensifit from the use of both your Pectoral and Cathartic Pills. I am nover without them in my family, nor shall I ever consent to be, while my means will procure them." The widely renowned S. S. STEVENS, M. D., of Wentworth, N. II., writes, --N. Il., writes,—

"Having used your Catharic Pills in my practice, I certify from experience, that they are an invaluable purgative. In cases of disordered functions of the liver, causing headache, indigestion, contineness, and the great variety of diseases that follow, they are a surer remedy than any other. In all cases where a jungative remedy is required, I confidently recommend these fills to the public as superior to any other I have ever found. They are sure in their operation, and perfectly safe—qualities which make them an invaluable article for public use. I have for many years known your Cherry Peterial as the best Cough medicine in the world, and these Pills are in no wise inferior to that admirable preparation for the treatment of diseases."

"Dr. J. C. Arzr. Dear Sir: I have been afflicted from my birth

"DR. J. C. ATER. Dear Sir: I have been afflicted from my birth with scrofula in its wirst form, and now, after twenty years' trial, and an unted amount of suffering, have been completely curse in a few weeks by your Pills. With what feelings of rejoicing I write, can only be imagined when you realize what I have suffered, and how long.

"Never until now have I been free from this loathsome disease in some shape. At times it attacked my eyes, and made me almost blind, bessiles the nuendurable pain: at others it extited in the scalp of my head, and destroyed my hair, and has kept me partly bald all my days; sometimes it came out in my face, and kept II for months a raw sore.

"About nine weeks ago I commenced taking your Cathartus Pills, and now am entirely free from the complaint. My eyes are well, my skin is fair, and my hair has commenced a healthy growth: all of which makes me feel already a new person.

"Hoping this statement may be the means of conveying information that shall do good to others. I am, with every sentiment of gratitude,

"Sra: I have great satisfaction in assuring you that payed and family have been very much benefited by your medicines. My wife was cured, two years since, of a severe and dangarous cough, by your Cherry Perchaut, and since then has crayed perfect health. My children have several times been cared from attacks of the Influenza and Croup by it. It is at invaluable remedy for these complaints. Your Catharite Phila have ontirely cured me from a dyspepsia and coaliveness which have grown upon me for some years; indeed, this care is much acre important, from the fact that I had failed to get relief from the best Physiciaus which this section of the country affords, and from any of the numerous remedical had taken.

"You seem to us, bestor, like a providential blessing to our family, and you may well suppose we are not unmindful of it.

Yours respectfully.

"Dr. J. C. ATER. Honored Sir: I have made a thorough trial of the Catharne Pills left me by your agent, and have beez cured by them of the dreadful Rhenmatism under which he found me suffering. The first dose releved me, and a few subsequent doses have entirely removed the disease. I feel in better health now than for some years before, which I attribute entirely to the effects of your Catharne Pills.

Yours with great respect.

LUCIUS B. METCALF."
